JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Three (3) months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $362,875.21 pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3663A to victim(s) as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts, and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim(s). The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the Clerk's Office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victim(s).

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross income, but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
4. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity wherein she has custody, control, or management of her employer's funds.
5. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
7. The defendant shall participate in home confinement for a period of six (6) months. During home confinement, the defendant may attend religious services, medical appointments for herself and her child, and transport her child to school. Also, for purposes of employment that's been approved by the Probation Office.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

USA vs. YUNG HE LEEDocket No.: CR 13-767-PSG

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on July 1, 2014. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the Royal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The Court also orders Pretrial Services to maintain the defendant's passport, to be return upon commencement of the defendant's supervised release term.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to the Women's Institution in Victorville

The bond is hereby exonerated upon self-surrender.

The defendant is advised of the right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
